Madison, Wisconsin -- Stephen P. Sinnott, United States Attorney for the Western District of Wisconsin, announced that Daniel Sandoval, DOB 2/26/65, of Madison, Wisconsin, was sentenced today by U.S. District Judge John C. Shabaz to 28 months in federal prison for possession with intent to distribute cocaine. Sandoval pleaded guilty to this charge on June 9, 2005.

In March 2005, on two separate occasions, Sandoval delivered an ounce of cocaine to an undercover officer. On April 7, 2005, Sandoval delivered over 300 grams of cocaine to an undercover officer in a parking lot in Madison. Sandoval was immediately arrested and confessed to the crime.

The charges against Sandoval were the result of an investigation conducted by the Dane County Narcotics and Gang Task Force and the Drug Enforcement Administration. Prosecution of the case has been handled by Assistant U.S. Attorney David J. Reinhard.
